

We are aware of how complex healthcare coverage can be especially when approaching 65 or contemplating retirement. For those of you who have questions regarding Medicare eligibility, or know someone who is, we now have a resource and solution.

Crawford Advisors, our employee benefits consultant, has partnered with SelectQuote Senior to provide unbiased comparison shopping from numerous A-rated carriers to deliver competitive rates on individual health insurance plans that work with your original Medicare coverage. SelectQuote Senior offers access to an informational website that allows you to explore plans available to those who are Medicare eligible. On the website, you will find information on original Medicare and how it works with Medicare Supplement, Medicare Advantage and prescription drug plans. You, as well as your eligible family or friends are able to receive quotes, watch informational videos and reach out to a highly trained licensed agent who is able to discuss plans that are available in your area and meet your needs.

With SelectQuote Senior, you will work with a personal, licensed agent who will answer your questions and impartially shop health insurance companies to find you the most suitable plan at the best possible price. There is no cost to you for this service.

Why is SelectQuote Senior being offered?

Medicare Supplement, Medicare Advantage and prescription drug plans increasingly provide equal or better coverage with lower monthly premiums. SelectQuote Senior will help you understand your choices and guide you through the options to help you find a plan that best suits your needs.
